

Technology & Engineering Virtual Career Fair - East Coast

Wednesday, February 29, 2012 • 10am – 3pm ET

Conduct interviews with talented technology and engineering professionals online without the cost, time and effort of travel.

Dice, the career hub for tech™, invites you to meet and interview experienced technology and engineering candidates in a live, virtual, 3-D, online environment—without the cost and inconvenience of travel. Chat with candidates, review resumes and work histories, and do everything else you normally would at a traditional job fair, in a highly efficient format.

We expect the attendance of hundreds of well-qualified tech professionals seeking careers on the east coast, with skills including:

- Information technology (all areas)
- Engineering (all areas)
- Internet/e-commerce
- Aerospace
- Aviation
- Defense
- Electronics
- Government
- Telecommunications
- All other related fields

This event will be advertised to over 500,000 IT and engineering candidates located in Maine, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, North Carolina, Washington DC, Maryland, Virginia, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Vermont, Rhode Island and New Hampshire.
